

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

2021-A

§ IN THE STATUTORY PROBATE
§
§ COURTS NOS. 1 - 4
§
§ HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

First Amended Administrative Order Regarding Gender Neutral Terminology For Personal Representatives

ON THIS DAY, the above Courts have determined the use of gender-specific titles for personal representatives, such as "Executrix" or "Administratrix," are outdated and unnecessary. Therefore, the Courts find the terms "Executrix" and "Administratrix" are interchangeable with "Executor" and "Administrator" respectfully ("altogether referred to as "the Words") in all documents and matters filed with the Clerk which includes but is not limited to Orders, Judgments, Proofs of Death, and Oaths, and that it is no longer necessary for the Clerk to enforce compliance by requiring the use of the exact same Words as in Wills as with other documents mentioned above herein filed in with the Clerk. The Courts also find that the preferred terms that attorneys, courts, and clerks should use henceforth are "Executor" and "Administrator". The clerks are specifically ORDERED to not reject Oaths on the basis of the use of said interchangeable Words.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Harris County Clerk's office treat alike the words "Executor" and "Executrix", irrespective of the sex, gender, or gender identity of a person named as such, or the term used in a testamentary document, unless otherwise ordered by a judge.

IT IS THEREFORE FURTHER ORDERED that the Harris County Clerk's office treat alike the words "Administrator" and "Administratrix" irrespective of the sex, gender, or gender identity of a person named as such, or the term used in a testamentary document, unless otherwise ordered by a judge.

IT IS THEREFORE FURTHER ORDERED that all statutory probate courts in Harris County, Texas, as well as parties and their counsel, treat alike the words "Executor" and "Executrix" irrespective of the sex, gender, or gender identity of a person named as such, except in a matter in which the term itself is relevant to the proceeding.

IT IS THEREFORE FURTHER ORDERED that all statutory probate courts in Harris County, Texas, as well as parties, litigants, and counsel to the same, similarly treat alike the words "Administrator" and "Administratrix" irrespective of the sex, gender, or gender identity of a person named as such, except in a matter in which the term itself is relevant to the proceeding.

Signed on this the 10 day of March, 2021.
